CENTERING PRAYER

Inhale the calming presence of God, then exhale the chaos wreaking havoc on your hearts. As Christ speaks, “Peace! Be still,” feel your spirit relax and release the tempest all around.

*CALL TO WORSHIP (inspired by Psalm 81)

Mary S. Brown

When the storms of life arise
and the waves threaten to overturn the boat of our faith, remember the power of our Savior
to calm, to still, to establish peace.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Mary S. Brown

CONFESSION

Gracious God, we come to you from our joy and our happiness – each emotion a kaleidoscope of our feeling in life’s changing patterns. We bless you for the love which has no dimension of length, breadth or height, coming as it does from the perfection of your being. We come to you knowing that sometimes we have received your grace in vain. We have not relied on your word or wisdom; we have not shown any concern or compassion when we should have; we have not loved our neighbor as we love ourselves. We remain silent when we should have spoken and spoken when we should have been silent. Eternal God as we ask that you accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, we pray that from the grace we have received, what we say and what we do will enable those around us to glimpse the life of your Son -- who calmed the storm with words which still echo down the centuries, ‘Peace be still’ . . . Amen.
