24th Sunday after Pentecost

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, those God redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. Psalm 107:1-3

Call to Worship Pastor Winston

Teach us, O God, the way of your statutes; and we will keep them to the end.
Let your steadfast love come to us, O God, your salvation according your promise.
You fill our mouths with laughter. You cause shouts of joy to come from our lips.
You have done great things for us. We come into your presence, singing your praises.
Let us worship God.

Call to Confession Marion Mildon

Prayer of Confession Marion Mildon

Dear God, you asked for hands to use for your purposes. We gave them for a moment, then withdrew them, for the work was hard. You asked for mouths to speak against injustice. We gave a bare whisper so we might not be accused. You asked for eyes to see the pain of poverty. We closed them, for we saw too much need. You have asked for lives that you might work through us. We have given a small part, so we do not get too involved.
Forgive our calculated efforts to serve you, only when it is convenient to do; only in places arranged safely for us; only with those who make it easy for us. Forgive us, renew us, send us as instruments of your peace and love. We ask this in the face of the cross, the cross which held our Lord and the burden of our sins. Amen.

(Silent Prayers may be offered)
