O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing (vs. 1 - 4)

O for a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of God's grace!

Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

Christ breaks the power of reigning sin,
And sets the prisoner free;
Christ's blood can make the sinful clean;
Christ's blood availed for me.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of Thy name.

*CALL TO WORSHIP (from Ephesians 2)

Emily Scholz

We were dead through the trespasses and sins in which we once lived,

Following the course of this world

But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which He loved us

Made us alive together with Christ!

For by grace you have been saved through faith,

And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God!

For we are what He has made us, created in Christ Jesus

For good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life!

*OPENING HYMN

O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

(See lyrics on the back of the bulletin)

Harold Willome

#466 (vs. 1 - 4)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (based in Luke 20:20-26)

Emily Scholz

Good Father, our Creator, we are Yours. Lord Jesus, by You and for You, we were created. We belong to You. Yet sometimes I give myself to others or other things so that Your good purpose for me is hindered. I have lived by other values and been frustrated and disappointed in my confusion. Holy Spirit, You who filled Adam and fill us as we follow Christ, remind me through the day to whom I belong so that I may be first Your faithful servant. This I ask in Jesus' name, Amen.

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus revealing the heart of our Father when we confess and return to Him: “But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.”

(Luke 15:20)

In Jesus the Christ we are forgiven and led!
